

„The logo for the Latvian Presidency of the Council of the European Union fully reflects what Latvian Presidency is going to be – stable, targeting development and as substantial as Latvian character. Latvian Presidency is to be a solid millstone, turning and driving the European Union forward to address issues and strengthen the role of the Union itself,” so Lettlands Aussenminister Edgars Rinkevics.

